KEITH HAWLEY

Keith began dancing at the age of 8 with Janet Neilson then at the age of 10 moved to train with Sandra Breen in Brisbane Queensland becoming a professional dancer at the age of 18.

Keith moved in to Musical Theatre and commercial dance throughout Australia and overseas appearing in musicals such as West Side Story, B&W Minstrels, Sugar Babies, La Cage aux Folles, Mikado, Danny La Rue and many more. He worked on numerous commercials and films – Happy Feet, Bootman, Three Stooges, TV commercial and various television shows.

Internationally, Keith worked and choreographed for some of the biggest names in the entertainment industry: Kylie Minogue, Tommy Tune, Arthur Lawrence, Marcia Hines, Gary McDonald, George Miller, Hugh Jackman, Eddie Bracken, Sandy Duncan, Marcia Hines, Jackie Love, Rhonda Burchmore, Diana Ross, Tom Burlinson and choreographed Kelley Abbey in Sweet Charity.

Alongside his dance and choreographic career, Keith begun working in photography, art and fashion design creating his own label. He photographed for Dance Train magazine, head shots for programs and general portfolio work with a vision on creating something fresh and new. Keith became Artist in Resident at the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts establishing himself as a choreographic and creative force winning the Hong Kong Dance Alliance award for choreography – Musical Theatre ... the first time in the history of the awards. He established himself as a creative source for the Asian corporate market and attracted some of the biggest clients throughout Asian – BMW, PwC Hong Kong, LV, Mont Blanc, Aedas, Cathay Pacific, HSBC, HK Land, Landmark HK, Swire to name a few.

Keith created a pivotal role as Senior Entertainment Manager for the Venetian Hotel Resort Macau where he was employing up to 200 dancers from all over the world. Creating and producing on average 37 shows and 44 events per annum, Keith was then head hunted to work for the acclaimed Franco Dragone as Resident Artistic Director - one of the largest and innovative entertainment companies in the world. He also was Director and Choreographer for Bug Symphony with the City Chamber Orchestra Hong Kong winning the YAM award for international public choice. Combining a plethora of skills, Keith Andrew Hawley has embarked on his own journey as a creative, generating a unique signature to his style and point of view. He lectures nationally and internationally in Creativity / Concept Development, Choreography, Staging, Motivation, Direction and continues to create work across a world stage.

CHARISSE PARNELL

Charisse Parnell is the founder and Creative Director of The Dance Collective (TDC), a leading dance training centre and performance company based in Perth, Western Australia. With a rich background in dance, education, and marketing, Charisse has dedicated her career to fostering inclusive and empowering dance experiences for people of all ages and abilities.

Charisse's professional dance career encompasses performances and choreography for television commercials, films, fashion parades, opening ceremonies, and corporate shows. She has worked with prominent artists such as Guy Sebastian, The Veronicas, Jessica Mauboy, and Tim Campbell, and has contributed to events like the WA Youth Awards, StyleAid, Oasis Ball, Gold Plate

Awards, and Telethon. Her training spans various styles, including Jazz, Contemporary, Hip Hop, Tap, and Ballet, with studies at esteemed institutions like the Contemporary Dance Centre in Perth, Broadway Dance Centre in New York, and Pineapple Studios in London.

Academically, Charisse holds a Bachelor of Arts in Marketing and Media and a Diploma of Education in Primary Teaching. She has been recognised with state-wide awards for her coordination of a successful dance program at Rossmoyne Senior High School and been nominated for Australian of the Year – Local Hero Award. Her contributions to dance education extend to lecturing at the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts and the University of Western Australia, authoring curriculum content, and providing professional development workshops for teachers across Western Australia.

Beyond her professional endeavours, Charisse is a dedicated mother of two and resides in Melville, Western Australia. She continues to inspire and uplift individuals through her work at The Dance Collective, emphasising community, personal growth, and the transformative power of dance.

PLEASE NOTE:

- ❖ Swan Park Theatre is a non-smoking venue.
- ❖ Only Teacher and Competitors in the current section will be allowed backstage.
(You will be asked to leave if you shouldn't be there)
- ❖ Recording of any kind is strictly prohibited – photography (inc mobile phones); video or music. PHOTOGRAPHY – Flash photography is strictly prohibited during competition due to child protection & negative impact it places on dancers while performing
